II. The word "Ship" throughout the said Act shall be held to mean and include a Schooner, Cutter, Brig, Brigantine, Barque, Steam-boat and any Square-rigged Vessel.

III. The said Act shall not extend to vessels known as "Straits' Traders," which shall not, on their arrival at, or entrance into the harbour or roadstead of Singapore in the said Act mentioned, have come from, or be about to proceed to any port or place to the East of the said harbour or roadstead.

Accommodation on Board the Pilot Vessels.

The following revised Rules relative to the accommodation of individuals proceeding to the Sandheads or down the River, on board any of the Hon'ble Company's Pilot Vessels, having been sanctioned by Government, are published for general information —

1*st.*—Officers, Civil or Military, when ordered to proceed on duty on board Pilot Vessels, are to notify the same to the Master Attendant. In cases where persons, whether public officers or private individuals, are desirous of proceeding on board a Pilot Vessel for the benefit of their health, application is to be made as above stated, accompanied by a Medical Certificate. Individuals, both in the service and out of it, who may wish to go on board a Pilot Vessel for purposes unconnected with duty or health, are to make application to the Superintendent of Marine. Officers in command of Pilot Vessels are on no account to receive on board as passengers, persons who have not obtained the requisite sanction from one or other of the above named authorities.

2*nd.*—Individuals proceeding on board Pilot Vessels, under any of the circumstances stated above, are entitled to occupy the port half of the after accommodation, free of other charge than that of mess or table-money hereafter specified. It must be understood that in all cases, when in conformity with these orders, the port cabin has been assigned to any Lady or Gentleman, no one can claim a share of such accommodation while the party by whom it was first engaged remains on board. Other parties, either in or out of the service, permitted to go on board, can only have such accommodation as the dining cabin affords, unless the Pilot in charge should let any of them have the use of his, the starboard cabin. It is to be optional with him to allow the occupation of it except as to Officers ordered on duty, to whom he must give up his, or the starboard half of the accommodation if required, but he is on no account to demand a greater sum for this accommodation than 8 Company's Rupees per diem for the first fourteen days, and 6 Rupees for every day after, whether it be given up voluntarily or under orders.

3*rd.*—Pilots in charge of Vessels are to provide a suitable table for their Passengers, and on no account to demand a larger amount for table-money than the sums specified in the margin, and any Pilot making directly or indirectly any demand either for table-money or accommodation not strictly authorized by these Regulations, besides being compelled to refund any overcharge, will be subjected to such loss of rank or other punishment as Government, at the recommendation of the Superintendent of Marine, may award.

A Gentleman 8 Rupees per diem for the first fortnight, 6 Rupees for every day afterwards.

A Lady 6 Rupees per diem for the first fortnight, 5 Rupees for every day afterwards.

A Child 4 Rupees per diem for the first fortnight, 3 Rupees for every day afterwards.

4*th.*—When a Pilot Vessel is placed at the disposal of a public functionary to convey him to different Ports in succession, half the amount of table-money may be charged for days spent on shore up to one week, but should the week be exceeded, no table-money is to be charged for any more days spent by the functionary on shore, but on his rejoining the vessel the rate will revert to the higher scale. A Pilot voluntarily proceeding in command of a vessel beyond Pilots' water, is not to be paid for his stern cabin if required to be taken for the use of a public functionary, such Branch Pilot being accommodated with a cabin in some other part of the vessel.

5*th.*—Warrant Officers, or other respectable parties, whose means do not admit of their paying the above rates, can be accommodated, and mess with the 2nd Mates and Volunteers, at a charge of 2 Rupees a day for the first fourteen days, and 1 Rupee 8 annas for each day afterwards that they remain on board. The Branch Pilots in charge of the Pilot Vessels are to see that such passengers are not charged more than these rates. Any demand for more will subject those who prefer it, to punishment.
